BUILDING OPERATIONS FOR NOVEMBER

Following is a list of contracts awarded published by the F. W. Dodge Co. throughout the States of New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, District of Columbia, Virginia, Ohio, West Virginia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, North and South Dakota and portions of Missouri and eastern Kansas:

January 1 to December 1, 1916	$1,243,998,397
January 1 to December 1, 1915	857,190,100
January 1 to December 1, 1914	677,920,300
January 1 to December 1, 1913	798,117,500
January 1 to December 1, 1912	803,391,500
January 1 to December 1, 1911	735,283,813
January 1 to December 1, 1910	756,284,931

Contracts awarded throughout New York State and northern New Jersey:

January 1 to December 1, 1916	$255,381,500
January 1 to December 1, 1915	155,154,500
January 1 to December 1, 1914	121,598,000
January 1 to December 1, 1913	235,694,500
January 1 to December 1, 1912	211,282,500
January 1 to December 1, 1911	215,839,500
January 1 to December 1, 1910	233,081,000

These figures show that this is the largest year in contracts awarded which we have had since 1909, being $400,000,000 over 1915, which is the next largest year. In the smaller territory, being $15,000,000 over the next largest year, which was 1913. For November for the entire territory in this table, the contracts awarded amounted to $122,382,000, and for the smaller territory $30,275,000. These figures, while they are considerably lower than any of the previous months, still show a tremendous amount of construction work for this time of year In the smaller territory the figures for November beat those of July by a small margin of about a million dollars, which is surprising, as July should be one of the largest months for construction we have.

Chinese Railways—Efforts are being made to revive the project of railway extension in Anhui Province planned some time ago. Routes from Hangchow to Kuangteh and Hweichow have already been surveyed, and arrangements are now being made between the Chekiang and Anhui promoters and the representatives of the Shanghai-Hangchow Nanking Ry. The completion of this railroad will bring Mokanshan summer resort within a few hours of Shanghai, and will also afford transportation for the stone of the Shanghai Municipal Pingchiao quarry to Hangchow and Shanghai. It is proposed to induce the Government to hasten the building of the line, which will be beneficial to all interests in Anhui. Construction work on the Canton-Hankow railway has continued despite the war, but it will be impossible to push on to completion the section from Wuchang to the border of Kwangtung Province, where it is to join with the section being constructed from Canton northward. Connection will, at all events, be made between Wuchang and Changsha, the capital of Hunan, a distance of 225 mi., by the end of this year. Bridging is proving exceedingly expensive and difficult, the rise of water from low to high tide being about 40 ft., and necessitating unusually high bridges. Some 52 mi. of rails have already been laid south from Wuchang, and it is hoped soon to operate a regular service.

The Lidgerwood Manufacturing Co., New York, has opened a branch office in the Hibernian Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif. Charles A. Baechtold is in charge.

The Ransome Concrete Machinery Co., Dunellen, N. J., has been obliged to make an advance of 10% in the list price of all machinery, and probably will make another advance of 10% in the selling prices after Jan. 1, 1917. This is owing to the scarcity of raw materials and labor due to the exportation to European countries of war munitions and materials.
